

WORKSHOP

“Uncertainty, Risk and Regulation: The Behavioral Law and Economics Perspective”

TU Berlin, 16.-17.6.2006

TU main building, room H1035
Straße des 17. Juni 135

Friday, 16th June

- 14.00 Andreas Ortmann (CERGE-EI Prague): Understanding
Corruption and Corruptibility Through Experiments: A Primer

 Comment: Gunnar Folke Schuppert (Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin)
- 15.00 Richard McAdams (University of Illinois): The just world bias and hate crime statutes

 Comment: Friedrich Kübler (University of Pennsylvania)
- 16.00 Coffee break
- 16.30 Ernst Maug (University of Mannheim): Is compensation with stock options efficient? A non-expected utility approach

 Comment: Gerald Spindler (University of Göttingen)
- 17.30 Arno Riedl (University of Maastricht): Institution Formation in Public Goods Games"

 Comment: Matthias Mahlmann (FU Berlin)
- Dinner

Saturday, 17th June

- 9.00 Erling Eide (University of Oslo): Accident liability with rank dependent expected utility
Comment: Dominique Demougin (HU Berlin)
- 10.00 Jochen Bigus (University of Osnabrück): Auditor's liability under prospect theory
Comment: N.N.
- 11.00 Coffee break
- 11.30 Bruno Deffains (University of Nancy): Litigations in Labor Law: Intuitive vs. reflective judgements
Comment: Christian Kirchner (HU Berlin)

Organized by Dorothea Kübler (TU Berlin) and Dominique Demougin (HU Berlin).
To register for participation, please send an e-mail to: d.kuebler@ww.tu-berlin.de.